AF28-300mm XR Di VC F/3.5-6.3 Macro

Equipped with an anti-shake mechanism called VC (Vibration Compensation) that lets you take blur-free hand-held pictures at slower than normal shutter speeds.

Here's your chance to get your hands on Tamron's latest line-up of Di and Di-II lenses. We will have a full range of lenses for you to borrow during the in-the-field session.

Houston Zoological Gardens

Houston, Texas — July 18 & 19, 2008

Les Voorhis

Your instructor is Les Voorhis. He is an award winning nature photographer who teaches photography classes and workshops for everyone from the rank beginner to the seasoned professional. He has been teaching workshops in various locations across the country from Florida to Montana. Les' published images have appeared in magazines, advertising campaigns, packaging, calendars, web sites and books. Profotos.com selected him as a Top 100 Photographer in 2001.

The Houston Zoo provides a fun, unique, and inspirational experience fostering appreciation, knowledge, and care for the natural world. Essentially a small city encompassing a world of ecosystems and experiences, the Houston Zoo is made up of many moving parts, with over 4,500 permanent residents. The Houston Zoo has grown to become the seventh most visited zoo in the nation and is widely respected for its conservation and education programs.
